

More Cars for Third Ave. Elevated.

Beginning tomorrow morning service on the Third Avenue Elevated will be increased by the addition of two cars to each train between 9:30 and 10 A. M. Reports of Inspectors of the Public Service Commission were to the effect that the trains were overloaded in the morning rush hours, and that in many instances passengers found it impossible to board trains.

Public Service Commissioner Lewis Nixon has told the Interborough Rapid Transit Company that the northbound service between 5 and 6:30 P. M. should also be improved. The company promised to amend its schedules to the end that adequate service might be rendered.

The New York Times

Published: April 25, 1920

Copyright © The New York Times